

The New DEATH & DYING

Luminous Concepts Productions &
A Thousand Hands Present

A Night with Dr. Karen Wyatt, Author, Speaker, Founder of End of Life University

Dr. Karen Wyatt, author of the book "What Really Matters: 7 Lessons for Living from the Stories of the Dying" and Founder of End of Life University will be talking about the national and local landscape of grassroots initiatives that are expanding end of life options and transforming the current mindset about how we live and die. Come hear about Death Cafés, local Home Funeral, Hospice and Green Burial networks, Threshold Choirs, Befriending death and more....

- Learn about evolving end of life options and choices available
- Get to know local organizations and networks who offer innovative services and support
- Gain awareness for yourself, your organization, business or cause

Questions: Anne Murphy at anniemurph@gmail.com
Dawn Vogel at dawnv@luminousconcepts.org

When: May 19, 6:30 -9:30pm, 2016

Where: SpringHouse Ministry Center
610 West 28th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55408

Purchase Tickets

Online tickets: $20 at <http://karenwyatt.bpt.me>
At the door: $25

Parking: On-street parking or use the city lot behind Jungle Theatre (Lake St. & Garfield with access off Lyndale, also street access from Garfield)

Luminous Concepts Productions

illuminating new frontiers of health & human potential

A Thousand Hands and Luminous Concepts Productions work collaboratively to create local events which evolve our relationship to life and death

Table Sponsors: Minnesota Threshold Network • Funeral Consumer Alliance of Minnesota
Final Blessings • Illuminate Integrative • Healthcare Choices from the Heart